

Miss Hahn Will Be Feted

A WHIRL OF prenuptial parties is in prospect for Betty Lou Hahn, who will become the bride of Harry Armstrong Jackson on St. Valentine's Day. For her today will be the tea which her prospective mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Kennedy Jackson, will give in Piedmont. Assisting in receiving will be girls who were to have been in Betty Lou's bridal party before plans for a small wedding were substituted for the larger gathering first scheduled. They will be Sally Harrison, Gwynn Corbet, Winifred Tinning and Mrs. Robert Fuller. Also assisting will be Mary Korbelt, who is to be the bride's only attendant.

Also for Betty Lou will be the luncheon and bathroom shower, which Sally Harrison, herself the bride-elect of Gurney Breckenfeld, has scheduled for tomorrow. Gwynn Corbet will honor her at a St. Francis luncheon Monday and January 31 Betty Lou will share honors with Lieut. John Hanson's bride-to-be, Jean Campbell, at a buffet luncheon which Winifred Tinning will give.

For Betty Lou and her fiance will be the dinner which Mary Korbelt will hostess preceding the February 7 ball at the Fairmont at which The Spinsters and the Bachelors will combine host duties.

* * *